Newsletter

Welcome back and Happy New Year to you all, although it does seem a long time ago now! It was lovely to see everyone after the holiday and the children have settled down to work really well. Thank you to those families whose who have been contacted because their child has been classed as a close contact, your cooperation and understanding has been very much appreciated.

Headteacher Update

Miss Julian will be absent until after February half term.

Please continue to contact your child's class teacher with any concerns (as you normally would).

Alternatively, Mrs Johnstone, can be contacted via Class Dojo or you can call the office.

We all send our very best wishes to Miss Julian.

NSPCC Number Day 2022

Friday 4th February 2022 is the annual NSPCC Number Day.

All the children will be participating in a range of exciting and fun activities linked to numbers.

The children will also be able to come to school in non-school uniform as part of the NSPCC theme 'Dress up for Digits'.

We are asking for voluntary donations of £1.00, all donations need to be paid via ParentPay.

Safer Internet Day 2022

Safer Internet Day is being held on 8 February 2022.

This year's theme is 'All fun and games? Exploring respect and relationships online'.

Safer Internet Day 2022 celebrates young people's role in creating a safer internet, whether that is whilst gaming and creating content, or interacting with their friends and peers.

The children will be having lessons on the day and taking part in activities around this years theme.

If you want to know more about how you can support your child/ren further, please visit the UK Safer Internet safety website where you can find lots of information, hints, guidance and tips for parents and carers.
