On Thursday this week, we held our first Public Speaking Event. As part of our transition morning children wrote poems, stories and sang songs around the theme of KINDNESS.

A number of children were selected to share their learning at our event. The children were amazing and showed great confidence—Well done!

Aspiration Day

On Friday 29 September 2023 we will be holding our first Aspiration Day. We are looking for people to come into school to speak to small groups of children about their jobs.

If you, or anyone you know, thinks they could inspire children please get in contact with the school office/class teacher.
